

Amendment #7
Offered by Mr. Barr

Page 8, strike lines 13-15 and insert:

“its mission. Given the unique organizational structure of the Consumer Bureau, Congress expects and demands accountability against any potential abuse, misuse, or non-use of its power in regulating financial products and empowering consumers. To achieve thorough oversight of the Consumer Bureau, the Committee supports subjecting all of its funding to the accountable and transparent annual Congressional appropriations process.”.